

Profile

Adeyinka Aroyewun is the Deputy Director and Head of Operations at the Lagos Multi-Door Courthouse (LMDC) where she has garnered tremendous experience in Arbitration and Mediation practice. She is an IMI Certified Mediator, an internationally accredited mediator of the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution (CEDR), UK, and a Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, UK. She holds a Masters degree in Law (LL.M) and a Masters in Business Administration (MBA) both from the University of Lagos, Nigeria.

She received Arbitration and Mediation training from the National Judicial College and the International Law Institute both in the United States of America. She attended the revered faculty training course of the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution in London and was among the first set of ADR trainers to attend the NCMG College of Negotiation/Bond University, Australia, ADR tutors program.

She is a member of the CEDR Foundation International ADR Trainers Network, UK and a certified trainer on the World Bank project for the expansion of ADR mechanisms and institutions in Nigeria managed by the ADR Centre in Italy.

She lectures at the prestigious University of Lagos/NCMG College of and is a faculty member of the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution, UK. She has delivered numerous papers on ADR.

She is a faculty member of the Nigerian Institute of Advanced Legal Studies ADR Course and recently appointed as a faculty member of the Mandatory Continuing Legal Education of the Institute of Continuing Legal Education of the Nigerian Bar Association.

She is on the Panel of Neutrals of the National Communications Commission, Nigeria and the Lagos Multi-Door Courthouse.

As an ADR Consultant, she continually researches on the latest global trends in dispute resolution to improve and set standards for the administrative and ADR processes at the Lagos Multi-Door Courthouse.

She has advised various organizations and individuals on the use of ADR Clauses and ADR techniques in preventing and resolving disputes.